DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 1-21 are allowed.
2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance.

Prior art fails to teach or fairly suggest a method and system for managing subscriber billing wherein each independent claim (i.e. claims 1, 7, 20 and 21) require, inter alia, determining the access right of the subscriber among different access rights to manage accounts of the subscriber billing group and to carry out predetermined procedures in or between the accounts of the subscriber billing group wherein the "predetermined procedures" are strictly limited to enabling an employer to carry out balance transfers between billing accounts within a group, only when an employee has used too many minutes. To support the Examiners reasons for allowance see paper dated 5/17/2006, page 3, lines 10-13 and paper dated 10/31/2006, page 7, lines 25-28 wherein Applicants have twice defined what is meant by "predetermined procedures".

Prior art (6,564,047) Steele et al generally teaches advanced air time management but does not limit the air time management to only be employed when a son or daughter uses too many minutes (see column 6) as required in independent claim (i.e. claims 1, 7, 20 and 21). Furthermore, Steele et al has an effective filing date of Aug. 28, 2000 whereas the current application claims benefit of July 19, 1999. Therefore, the Examiner is unable to apply Steele et al as prior art.

Art Unit: 2617

Prior art (6,987,844) Himmel et al generally teaches transferring between accounts but does not strictly limit the transfer to only occur when employee has used too many minutes as required in each independent claim (i.e. claims 1, 7, 20 and 21). Furthermore, Himmel et al only has an effective filing date of Aug. 30, 2001, which is well after the current application having an effective filing date of July 19, 1999.

Therefore, the Examiner is unable to apply Himmel et al as prior art.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
